

Understanding Trusts and Foundations

About Feelgood Academy

The Feelgood Academy is the training arm of the Netherton Feelgood Factory, a Merseyside-based charity with over 15 years experience of providing grassroots health promotion and community support.

The Feelgood Academy has been set up to enable us to share our skills and learning with others.

Who should attend this course?

This session is for people working (in paid or voluntary capacities) in the Voluntary Sector who have limited experience of applying for funding from Charitable Trusts and Foundations. It is particularly aimed at those working in small charities. No prior knowledge or experience is required.

Course Content:

Charitable Trusts and Foundations are an important and potentially valuable source of income but a lot of time is wasted because bid writers do not understand what makes them tick. This session looks at why trusts exist, what they want and how to convince them that yours is the bid of their dreams.

Length of Course: 1 day

Qualification Achieved: Certificate of Attendance

About the Trainer: The trainer has over twenty-five years experience of charity management and hold a Diploma in Fundraising from the Institute of Fundraising.
